

JORDAN MCGIBNEY
CLASS OF 2010-12

WHERE AM I NOW?

I am the co-owner of an independent film production company, McGibney.

A LEVEL QUALIFICATIONS AT BILBOROUGH

General Studies, Media Studies, Film Studies, Photography

WHERE I WENT AFTER BILBOROUGH

Straight after Bilborough I started up McGibney and I began training myself. I was very fortunate to get in the BFI Film Academy, which eventually led to me being chosen as one of six directors on the NFTS Talent Campus. A lot of my career has grown from work experience. For example my work on The Rise and Fall of Little Voice led to me being selected for the Regional Theatre Directors Scheme.

MY MEMORIES OF BILBOROUGH

Bilborough College was paramount in giving me the confidence, inspiration and knowledge to move into the competitive film industry.

MY ADVICE TO YOU...

Knowledge is the most powerful tool in any industry; the time you have now is paramount to shaping your future selves. We all fall but it is those who have the ability to roll with the punches that eventually become successful. Nothing is impossible, everything is attainable and it all comes down to one thing. Your tenacity
