

6

SPRINGBOARD

BTEC National Extended Certificate in Digital Music Production (Music Technology)

OUR COURSE DETAILS

This course offers both practical and theoretical skills which enhance progression to employment, apprenticeships and higher education in the field of Music Technology and the creative industries. As an ab initio BTEC the course widens participation in this area and allows students to develop valuable independent learning skills and strategies for organisational expertise.

KEY MUSIC TECHNOLOGY EQUIPMENT TO RESEARCH

- Neumann and AKG microphones
- Digital Audio Workstations - Apple Logic X software
- Moog synthesizers
- Akai Samplers
- Genelec Speakers

PREPARING FOR STUDY

Top tips – have a look at these tutorials on Logic X software. This is the main system you will be using on the course:

www.youtube.com

FILMS

Watch these excellent Music Production documentaries:

insider.dbsmusic.co.uk

EMPLOYABILITY

www.prospects.ac.uk

www.calu.edu

LINKS TO THE SPECIFICATIONS

qualifications.pearson.com

UNIVERSITY COURSES

Recent destinations from the department include:

- University of Surrey – Tonmeister Degree
- University of York – Music Technology Systems
- Liverpool Institute of Performing Arts - LIPA
- School of Audio Engineering - SAE
- British Institute of Modern Music - BIMM
- Academy of Contemporary Music - ACM
- Leeds College of Music

OUR TOP READS

This book provides a good introduction to the main concepts involved in the course.

It can be purchased via the link below:

www.amazon.co.uk

USEFUL ONLINE LINKS

Listen to audio examples, watch video tutorials on software and music technology concepts on the Music Technology Department's Youtube channel:

YouTube

